Artitype Special Character List

Due to its goal of maximum usability in user interfaces and other adjacent applications, the Artitype fonts contain multiple characters that are not currently defined on the official Genotheta specifications. These characters are subject to change as Artifyber continues development her cypher.

The following table lists all nonstandard glyphs present in the Artitype fonts. Some of them are present in multiple codepoints for practicity's sake. Only the earliest codepoint each glyph appears on is listed for brevity.
